March 9: Assemble for an amazing breakfast at 9:30 and settle in for a discussion of What Is Our Witness to the Present? This discussion is in response to Monthly Meeting in Second Month. Peace and Social Concerns Committee brought ideas about how we face, relate and react to the current situation in our community/government/life of the Meeting. Before we can help others, we need to understand where we, ourselves, are coming from and what our thinking is in the present time. Then, we have various opportunities to help others once we understand from whence we come. Please come and help the Meeting to understand our position(s).

March 13: Immigrant Defense Planning Siembra NC invites you to a meeting to discuss three strategies we're advancing across the state to protect immigrant workers and all workplaces targeted by multiple federal agencies. Please invite anyone in Alamance, Chatham, and Orange looking for concrete ways to pitch in beyond protesting. We need all hands on deck! Juntos Podemos.

March 15: The Snow Camp Seed and Plant Swap will hold a seed swap and potluck lunch at 11:30. Bring some seeds, a dish and a drink to share and join the fun! See you at Spring Friends Meeting.

Save the Date April 5th for Spring's Dinner and a Play

Potluck will begin at 6pm in the hut and followed by Frank Levering two-person play The Distance Between Us.

Happy March birthday!
